As you approach the National Blood Centre on Vincent Drive you will see a sign on a black board for BUIC which will lead you uphill on the slip road to the Imaging Centre.

Directions and Maps

From the M5 Northbound:

From the M6:

Exit the motorway at Junction 6 and join the A38(M) toward Birmingham. Follow the A38(M) through Birmingham city center following signs for the A38 and the University. Carry straight on crossing the major traffic lights at the A4540 and B4217. At the end of the dual carriageway take a right turn at the gun barrels pub onto Edgbaston park road. Continue past the University on the left and take the first left into Pritchatts Road. Continue to the mini roundabout then turn left onto Vincent drive. BUIC can be found on the right about 200m down the road.

For sat-nav users direct to postcode:-
B15 2SG for Vincent Drive.
B15 2SA for Pritchatts Road Car Park
Follow this slip road up and turn right towards the Queen Elizabeth Hospital Haematology Department.

Car Parking: The parking spaces around BUIC are very limited and often unavailable. The best place to park is in Pritchatts Road Car Park (junction with Vincent Drive) which is a pay and display carpark. Car Parking rates are as follows:- 1 hour £1, 1-3 hours £3, 3-5 hours £4

By Train:

University is the nearest station which receives a regular service from Birmingham New Street. BUIC is a very short walk from the university station.

Once parked, turn right from the main doors of the glass corridor and BUIC will be immediately to your right after one set of double doors.

Turn immediately right after exiting the university station and cross the pedestrian crossing. Take the path to the right and then immediately take the uphill path to your left (Picture 1). Walk through the carpark until you see the BUIC forecourt (Picture 2). BUIC is situated immediately to your right from the glass corridor. Press the buzzer for attention.
